

M.S.A. Branch of Red Cross Society Formed at Largely Attended Public Meeting

Nearly 200 persons attended a public meeting held in Philip Sheffield auditorium on Monday night and enthusiastically supported formation of a Matsqui-Sumas-Abbotsford Branch of the Canadian Red Cross Society. A. S. Towell, director of education, acted as chairman until officers were elected, and Mrs. W. J. Allan, C.B.E., representing the Provincial Branch, outlined the objectives of the work both at home and overseas as well as the rules governing organization of the body.

Mrs. Allan congratulated the Area on holding the largest meeting, outside of the cities, in her extensive experience and was greatly interested in the large number of nominations submitted for the various offices.

She stressed the importance of the Red Cross work in Canada, "Keeping the Home Fires Burning", equally with the Overseas work and, in answer to a question, left no doubt in the minds of the audience that efficient organization guaranteed all supplies reached their point of need.

H. E. Beeston, representing the Board of Trade, proposed the local organization be made an "M.S.A. Branch". This was supported by G. H. Leach of Bradner and other speakers and was unanimously endorsed. Mrs. Allan stated this plan was favored by Provincial H.Q.

While the meeting indicated it would like to have seen Director Towell, Dr. J. A. Taylor, M.H.O., or Geo. F. Pratt accept the presidency as first choices when they, Mrs. McPhee and Rev. A. Cameron declined nomination, election between Rev. F. S. Henderson and Mr. Beeston resulted in the former being chosen as president.

Three vice-presidents were finally elected: Mr. Beeston, Dr. Taylor and Mrs. J. M. Rowley; Miss Beth Andrews was elected secretary and appointment of treasurer was left to the executive which was also given power to add to the executive named: Mrs. O. H. Heywood, Mrs. H. Beeston and Mrs. R. Gilmore.

EXECUTIVE MEETS

At an executive meeting Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Rowley, it was announced that L. Caldecott, Royal Bank manager, had accepted the treasurer'ship. Miss Constance Cruickshank, Clayburn, and Mrs. Marjorie Hunter, Sumas Prairie, were added to the executive. A committee, Mrs. Rowley and Mrs. Heywood, was named to seek quarters suitable for workroom and store-room. Dr. Taylor accepted charge of Home Nursing Department, Mrs. Rowley and Mrs. Heywood, preliminary organization; and the treasurer, Mrs. Beeston and Mrs. Gilmore finance. Application will be made immediately for a branch charter.

BRIDGE CLUB BECOMES RED CROSS AUXILIARY

The Thursday Afternoon Bridge Club met after the summer recess on Thursday at the home of Mrs. O. W. Benedict. It was decided to carry on for the duration of the war as an Abbotsford auxiliary of the M.S.A. Red Cross branch and funds in hand were voted for supplies. Mrs. O. W. Benedict is president and Mrs. H. S. Andrews is secretary-treasurer. The first meeting takes place this Thursday at the home of Mrs. R. Gilmore.

C.N.R. ABANDONS LINE

The Board of Transport Commissioners has authorized the abandonment of 56.5 miles of Canadian National line between L'Orignal and Hurdman, in Ontario. The board said "...the annual loss to the railway company in cost of operation is far greater than any inconvenience which the public may suffer."

FATAH CHAND IS CHARGED BY R.C.M.P.

Fatah Chand, well known East Indian resident on the old Provincial Highway, appeared in Sumas police court Saturday morning on a charge preferred by R.C.M.P. of possession of portions of the opium poppy. A. S. Duncan of New Westminster appeared for the Crown and in the absence of counsel for Chand, Magistrate J. W. Winson postponed the hearing to Thursday at 2 p.m.

John K. Leitch succeeds the late Fred Carmichael as manager of the Meat Department of the Safeway Store in Abbotsford.

"COMBINING" ON SUMAS PRAIRIE

Harvesting Oats Near Abbotsford

One of several modern Massey-Harris combines acquired by farmers in the M.S.A. Area this season is shown in action in the above picture taken by The News. The outfit is that of S. Hiemstra, Vye road, harvesting oats in the big field below the former home farm on the Trans-Canada highway five miles east of Abbotsford. The combine is a Massey-Harris "Clipper" or "straight through" machine, the cutter bar being directly in front of the threshing mechanism. The width of cut is 6 ft. and the cylinder, racks, screens, etc., 5 ft. The combine is being drawn by a Massey-Harris "101" super tractor which Gerald Hiemstra, younger son of Mr. and Mrs. S. Hiemstra, has operated throughout the season. He is shown at the wheel with the one additional man required in the cutting and threshing operations busy on the bagging platform of the combine. Two filled sacks of grain are shown on the chute and one on the platform will be noticed almost filled. The stand of oats being cut ran 40 bushels.

Hundreds Attend Last Rites For Late Fred Carmichael, Victim of Highway Accident

Sudden and tragic death of a well-known and popular citizen resulted in the largest attendance at a funeral service here in many years when the last rites were observed at 1 p.m. Sunday for the late Fred Carmichael, victim of a traffic accident Thursday evening. The services were held from Henderson's Funeral Home, Abbotsford, and the large chapel was able to accommodate only about one-third of the many friends of the deceased, the larger number standing on the lawns. Rev. Angus Cameron of Trinity United church officiated at the chapel while the graveside service at Hazelwood cemetery was conducted by the I.O.O.F. of which order the deceased had been an active member. More than 100 members participated. There was a large number of floral tributes and nearly 100 cars formed the cortege. Pallbearers were A. E. Hunt, H. Peachey, Percy Atkins, Neil McKinnon, Tom Kerr and P. Dawson.

Born in August, 1888, in Kenora, Ont. (then Rat Portage—Fred Carmichael came with his parents to Vancouver at age of 4 years. Two years later, Mr. and Mrs. Carmichael came to the Fraser Valley and subsequently settled in what is now Bradner, where the old home is occupied now by an older brother, James. Here Fred, with nine other children, received his public school education and the Fraser Valley has practically always been his home.

Coming to Abbotsford in February, 1919, a partner of S. F. White in the butcher business, he has followed the trade here ever since, except for two or three years in Kamloops and Salmon Arm.

When Safeway Stores opened here early in 1930, Mr. Carmichael became manager of the meat department, a position he held at time of death.

In the winter of 1919 he married Nora McGillivray, daughter of a pioneer family of Huntingdon, who predeceased him about 12 years ago. Two children survive: Kenneth, aged 19, and Georgia, 17 years, at present at the home in Abbotsford.

Always active and fond of company, genial and witty, Fred Carmichael endeared himself to old and young alike, and in years past many a social or family gathering in this district was not fully complete unless he had a part on the program.

The evening of his tragic death he had just left his sister's home with a large box of sandwiches for a lodge meeting in Chilliwack, being struck down before reaching his car.

Mrs. A. Carmichael, 82, and her daughter, Mrs. A. Sheffield, arrived on Saturday from Calgary to attend the funeral.

T. S. Carmichael of Prince George also attended his brother's funeral.

Mr. Carmichael had been a member of the staff of the Abbotsford Safeway Store for nearly 10 years and Safeway Ltd. was represented at the funeral by W. B. Nichols, district representative; F. F. Motts, head office manager; and the members of the staffs of the Chilliwack and Mission stores as well as his former associates in the Abbotsford store.

F.V. Mennonites Pledge Loyalty To The Empire

In resolutions expressing appreciation of the freedom of thought, speech and religion which they enjoy in Canada, Fraser Valley Mennonites, at a largely attended meeting in South Poplar on Sunday afternoon, pledged their loyalty to the Dominion and the British Empire.

Held in South Poplar Hall, the meeting was attended by Mennonites of the Poplar district, Yarrow district and other sections of the Fraser Valley. While the addresses were given in German they were in part translated for the benefit of a number of visitors who included Reeve George Cruickshank of Matsqui and members of the police forces.

While one of the resolutions drew attention to the promise accorded the Mennonites by the Canadian government when they immigrated that they would not be called upon to bear arms which is contrary to their religion it promised support in other activities such as assistance to the Red Cross.

The meeting concluded with the singing, in English, of "God Save the King."

Greater Farm Yield Sought In Province

Formation of an agricultural production committee for British Columbia, to work in close co-operation with the national organization for united and systematic effort in food production is announced by Hon. K. C. MacDonald, minister of agriculture.

J. B. Munro, deputy minister, and Ernest MacGinnis, secretary to the minister have left for Ottawa to attend a conference of representatives from all provinces Wednesday.

Upon the entry of the Dominion into the war the ministry of agriculture took steps to organize farm production in this province. A committee was appointed under chairmanship of Mr. Munro, and including J. A. Grant, George H. Stewart and Mr. MacGinnis. This committee will be enlarged later, Mr. MacDonald said, by addition of other departmental officials.

The purpose of the committee is to encourage production of food and fibre supplies for the Empire and her Allies.

To this end the provincial body will co-operate with Dominion efforts (Continued on Page Six)

POLICE ENROLLING EMERGENCY UNITS IN M.S.A. AREA

On instructions from headquarters, Provincial Police Constables J. H. Davey, Abbotsford; H. Parker, Matsqui, and J. Blezard, Sumas are registering volunteers for emergency defensive and protective measures for the respective districts. The volunteers are intended to render aid in case of sabotage or attempts to damage or destroy public buildings or works. They will act as fire-fighters, assistant police and first-aid men until the proper authorities can take over.

Jury Finds Negligence In Fatality

CORONER CONDUCTS LENGTHY INQUIRY INTO FATALITY

Frederick Murray Carmichael, popularly known to a host of friends in the M.S.A. Area as "Fred", met almost instant death at 7:30 p.m. Thursday when he was struck by a car driven by Frank Parsons of Vancouver. The accident took place on the Trans-Canada highway just west of Abbotsford. Mr. Carmichael had called at the home of his sister, Mrs. S. F. White, for a box of sandwiches en route to attend a lodge meeting at Chilliwack. He was just crossing the highway from the foot of the White steps to his car parked on the south side of the highway, when the accident occurred.

APPEARED SUDDENLY

Testimony of Mr. Parsons, supported by his wife who accompanied him, given voluntarily at the inquest held Friday afternoon and evening at Henderson's Funeral Home, was to the effect that the driver did not see Mr. Carmichael until he appeared about 10 feet in front of the left headlight of the 1939 sedan. Mr. Parsons said he had slowed at the crest of the hill, as police admitted brake marks revealed, and passed another car when suddenly he found Mr. Carmichael in front of him. He applied the brakes and endeavored to pass behind the man who appeared to be running diagonally across the road to the southeast.

Mr. Carmichael was struck by the right fender and apparently lifted and fell on the fender denting it over 2 inches deep about 3 feet back, Const. Boulton submitted. Measurements given by Const. Saunders indicated the sandwiches Carmichael had been carrying were found at a point 17 feet down the hill from his light truck and the body was found a further 50 feet down the hill at the south edge of the paving. Total distance of skid marks of varying pressure was given as 134 feet. George Preston of the Fraser Valley Bakery gave evidence that he passed the White steps westbound in a car just before the accident without seeing Carmichael and then passed the Parson's car just before he, Preston, stopped at the top of the hill to drop a passenger. He did not observe the Parson's car to be travelling fast.

CAR TESTED

The coroner, Dr. E. J. Eacrett of Mission, and the jury under E. A. Barrett, foreman, requested Const. Boulton to test the Parson's car at the scene of the accident at 20 miles an hour, the speed Parsons estimated he was traveling at the time of the accident, and this was done during a summer recess at 6:30 p.m. The test showed that at 20 m.p.h. on the down grade the car could be stopped with a 23-foot skid and at 35 m.p.h. in 34 feet. It showed a tendency to swerve to the left on (Continued on Page Six)

A REQUEST TO RELATIVES OF ENLISTED MEN

As THE NEWS would like to compile a public record of the men from Matsqui, Sumas and Abbotsford Area who have enlisted in the Home Defense or Active Service forces in the present World War, relatives, friends, former employers or associates of these men are requested to call at THE NEWS office, or write, and leave the names and units of enlisted men known to them, also the names of parents or local relatives.

Three Hurt In Sabotage Of Valley Tram

SECOND ATTEMPT TO WRECK TRAIN SUCCEEDS; NONE SERIOUSLY HURT

Sabotage is believed responsible for the derailing of a B.C. Electric interurban train near Sardis at 8:35 p.m. Saturday, with resultant injury to three persons. The east-bound tram passed through Abbotsford at 7:45 p.m.

Two young women and an elderly man were injured, none seriously, when the train left the tracks and smashed against a telephone pole after being derailed by two spikes driven into a rail joint.

The injured, reported by Constable D. D. Brunton of Chilliwack, included Grace Gray, a young American woman on a brief visit to her uncle, George Maurer of Chilliwack. She suffered a back injury. Emily Anderson, a school teacher at Coqualeetza Indian school at Sardis, received cuts on her mouth, and A. D. Fries, 133 Bennett Ave., Bellingham, complained of injuries to his back. None were detained at the hospital.

It is reported that a railroad spike was passed through a large bridge nut and driven into an expansion gap between rail ends on a curve. Another spike was fixed to run the lead wheel of the car truck up onto this and then drop it off the rail with the aid of the curve. The derailed car smashed into and broke off a power pole, the broken end of which is said to have slid along the car top. The car was not replaced on the rails until Sunday at 11 a.m. when it was taken to the Coast, passing through Abbotsford about noon.

Police, suspecting sabotage, recalled that at Yarrow two weeks ago a railroad tie was placed across the tracks in an effort to wreck the oncoming tram.

In the car at the time of the accident Saturday, there were eight passengers, including a small child. The conductor was Archie Marsh, the motorman, J. W. Campbell, formerly of the Milk Train.

MATSQUI WILLING TO DISCUSS THE "HOSPITAL ROAD"

Matsqui Municipal Council will be glad to meet Abbotsford Board of Commissioners and Sumas Municipal Council on the McCallum or "Hospital Road" matter at any time, Reeve George Cruickshank of Matsqui informs THE NEWS. Reeve Cruickshank declared he did not think it was necessary to call in a third party in the discussions. Matsqui council is meeting today, Wednesday, and will answer, Reeve Cruickshank states, certain statements made in correspondence published in THE NEWS.

HOME BREWED BEER, DRAWS $25 FINE

Frank Steger, Sumas Prairie, appeared before Magistrate J.W. Winson in Sumas police court on Thursday on charges preferred under the Excise Act by R.C.M.P. possession of home brew, and was fined $25 and costs. Fine was paid. It was pointed out that all citizens brewing beer at home for their own consumption may be similarly charged unless they have advised the Collector of National Revenue, New Westminster, of their action and describing the utensils, such as boiler, crocks, etc., and received his acknowledgement.

FINED $5

Apprehended by Highway Patrol Officer Phil Boulton, on a charge of causing unnecessary suffering to animals, Gino Gerardi of Vancouver appeared before Magistrate Geo. F. Pratt in Abbotsford police court Friday and was fined $5 and costs. Police stated Gerardi was conveying four cows, a bull and five pigs in a one-compartment truck.

HARRY MATTHEWS IN CHARGE OF CEMETERY

Harry Matthews of St. Nicholas has been named commissioner of Hazelwood Cemetery by Matsqui council. He succeeds Fred White who has retired after many years of service in charge of the cemetery. Mr. Matthews is well known particularly among ex-service men in the district.

An Opportunity For All To Serve

Formation of a Matsqui-Sumas-Abbotsford branch of the Canadian Red Cross Association, effected at a well attended and representative meeting on Monday night, provides every citizen remaining at home, whether man, woman, boy or girl, with an opportunity to serve in an important way during this War to End Aggression.

That our citizens, of all ages, are anxious to "do their bit" in whatever capacity the authorities may deem most useful was evident by the interest taken in the proceedings Monday night. The executive chosen has no small job in developing an organization that will effectively take advantage of this enthusiasm. It is fortunate, however, in having as near as Chilliwaack as experienced an advisor as Mrs. Allan, C.B.E., the Provincial Red Cross representative proved to be on Monday night. What may be done and how it may be done is also very clearly defined in the rules necessary to the successful administration of such a vast organization as the Red Cross and this fact, together with the careful co-operation and understanding of members of the executive and the citizens generally, realizing that in times of stress all personal inclinations give way to the major objective in mind, should assure the M.S.A. Branch proving the outstanding contributor to Red Cross work that this Area is well capable of being.

The organization proposed would appear to be ideal for this Area as it does not disrupt the many splendid small organizations throughout the districts but, leaving them intact, takes advantage of their proven strength and co-ordinates the efforts of all of them as a worthwhile unit in the major provincial body.

Popular opinion is, and has been for some years, that of all things this country has is plenty of food. During the past week or two people have worried themselves into a state of hysterical buying. This is a sure way to boost prices. Only a short time ago Canada was faced with the problem of what to do with the piled-up surplus of butter, and other commodities. Today in our vast warehouses those same stock exist.

Soldier Also "Worthy Of His Hire"

"What burned me up in the last war was the fact that I risked my life and endured much hardship and received $1.10 a day and allowances as a "buck" private, while the munition worker at home received as high as $14 a day. There should be some form of enactment to prevent such inequality this time," the Chilliwaack Progress quotes a Returned man as stating as he witnessed a company of enlisted men starting out on a route march. True, The Progress observes, the rate of pay has been increased to $1.30 a day and allowances. If this sum and allowances, such as food and clothing, is a fair rate of pay for a young man in uniform in the service of his country, then there can be no justification for payment of higher wages to the man working in the safety and comparative comfort of a munition factory or shipbuilding plant.

Italian newspapers express concern and sorrow over the fate of the Roman Catholic Poles. These surely are crocodile tears. Mussolini played up to Hitler to an extent that drew from his own people protests against Hitler domination of Italian policy. As an accessory before the fact, Italy must accept prime responsibility for the rape of Poland.—Cowichan Leader.

Except By Work

We have drifted a long way from the facts of existence as outlined by "John Turnipseed" in the following homely philosophy which appeared in the Montreal Herald:

"WORK—I was readin' the other day where the chamber of commerce in some city was raisin' a milk fund and some farmer give 'em a cow. He said he had too many anyway, on account of the market bein' what it is, and so instead of givin' a few bottles of milk for the poor kids, he just up and give 'em the source of supply.

"Of course, that stumped the chamber of commerce. It was the first time some of 'em knew milk came from cows, and there wasn't one of 'em knew how to get it out.

"You'd think there'd be some poor family with a lot of kids that would be tickled to get a cow, but there wasn't no takers. They don't seem to want to feed a cow and milk her. What they want is for someone to set some bottles of milk on the back steps.

Honestly, is some of these city folks was to wake up and find themselves out on a farm, they'd starve to death, on account it would be too much trouble to dig potatoes out of the ground and pick the feathers off the chickens. What some folks need to learn is that there ain't no way to produce anything except by work. Some people have figured out ways to live off'n other folks' work, but we can't all do that.

"It ain't just laziness I'm talkin' about. It's bein' so particular about the kind of work a feller is willin' to do. I was brought up to do whatever there was to be done, even if cleanin' out the cow stable ain't as pleasant as running the tractor. I've got a hunch that if folks would pitch in and do whatever kind of work there is to be done, we wouldn't have no hard times."

It is generally agreed that the reshuffling of the Canadian cabinet has strengthened that body.—Kamloops Sentinel.

FARM and RANCH TOPICS

USEFUL HINTS ON STORAGE OF VEGETABLES

Unless vegetables which are intended to be stored for winter are grown to as nearly full maturity as possible, they cannot be expected to keep well. On no account should squash and pumpkins be exposed to the least frost. As soon as the rind is firm enough to prevent piercing by the fingernail, the fruit may be taken off the plant. Pumpkins and squash should be stored in a dry place at a temperature of from 40 to 50 degrees. At all times they should be handled as carefully as eggs. The slightest bruise, even though not noticeable, is likely to cause decay in storage. When large quantities are to be stored, slatted shelves should be used so that the fruit may not be piled on top of another.

The Danish Ballhead strain is the best of cabbages for winter storage. All outer leaves should be removed and the heads handled carefully to avoid bruising. Select a dry day when the heads have no rain water lodged in them and store in a cool dry place. If there is good circulation of air in the storeroom, the heads may be piled in several layers. Small quantities may be pulled without cutting off the heads and suspended from the joists in a dry cellar. The roots may be left on, but with all the outer leaves removed.

Carrots, beets and parsnips should be kept very cool, and if well dried before storing may be put in large piles, so long as there is no disease present. If carrots show signs of rust-fly injury, the roots should be stored in smaller quantities, as one blemished root will spoil many in a very short time.

Potatoes keep well in a dry place where the temperature is between 30 and 40 degrees Fahrenheit.

3,888,000 NAILS POUNDED IN CRATES OF POTATOES

There should be no question about these potatoes being held down. A total of 3,888,000 nails had been used up to last week in the crates of Whatcom County certified seed potatoes being shipped to Buenos Aires, Argentina.

From 40,000 to 50,000 crates will be shipped by Whatcom County growers to the South American countries.

MILK PRICES RISE

Milk prices were raised in Montreal on Monday. Standard milk will sell to consumers for 7 cents a pint, 11 per quart. Farmers will receive $2.15 per 100 pounds—approximately 40 quarts.

LIGHT UP THE YARD

Do early winter evenings shorten your time for chores by several hours? Would you like inexpensive protection against prowlers?

A few strategically placed yardlights are the answer to these problems. They may be controlled by switches in both the house and barn, and are of weather-proof construction.

Ask your nearest B.C. Electric Agricultural Representative for information about lighting your farm yard.

A. S. & M. NEWS

Says Purity Maid: "If you don't want to lose Purity Flour's the one you should choose. For pies and all pastry, for cakes and for bread. Use Purity Flour and you'll come out ahead."

PURITY MAID SAYS: "Everything runs by rule. When you get around to time for a thorough house-cleaning, you follow a system of rules that you've found best. It's the same with baking. You follow rules. Number One rule followed by Canada's best cooks is to bake with Purity Flour—and here's why: Purity Flour gives you the utmost in food value and flavor. It is always uniform in strength. Everything you bake is better. Just try it. Here's a recipe to start on:

DEVIL'S CAKE

$\frac{1}{2}$ cup butter $\frac{1}{2}$ cup boiling water
2 cups brown sugar $\frac{1}{4}$ cup Purity Flour
2 eggs $\frac{1}{4}$ teaspoon baking powder
 $\frac{1}{4}$ teaspoon soda $\frac{1}{4}$ teaspoon salt
 $\frac{1}{4}$ cup cocoa $\frac{1}{4}$ cup sour milk

METHOD:—1. Cream butter with sugar thoroughly. 2. Add well-beaten eggs. 3. Dissolve soda and cocoa in the boiling water and add to Mixture No. 2. 4. Stir flour with baking powder and salt and add, alternately, with milk to Mixture No. 3. 5. Bake in slow oven of 400 degrees for 35 minutes.

FRESH PEACH TREATS

When you go to market these days, the first sight that greets you is peaches, boxes upon boxes of great luscious peaches. By this time you have probably finished canning them and may have time to try some of the many interesting and delicious desserts which may be prepared with peaches.

PEACH COBBLER

Here is a recipe for a delicious

Peach Cobbler:

2 c. sliced peaches
1 egg, well beaten
2-3 cup sugar
 $\frac{1}{4}$ c. butter
Baking powder biscuit dough
Mix egg, peaches and sugar and put in a buttered baking dish. Dot over with butter. Cover with biscuit dough. Bake in a hot oven (450 degrees) until nicely browned and biscuit is done. Serve with Hard Sauce or Lemon Sauce.

HARD SAUCE

1 c. powdered sugar
1-3 c. butter
Flavoring
Cream butter and sugar thoroughly. $\frac{1}{4}$ c. of heavy cream may be added.

LEMON SAUCE

$\frac{1}{2}$ c. sugar
1 tbsp. corn starch
1 c. boiling water
2 tbsp. butter
 $\frac{1}{2}$ tsp. lemon juice
Salt and nutmeg to taste

PEACH CRUMBLE PIE

Fill a glass pie plate with sliced peaches. Prepare the following mixture:

1 c. brown sugar
1 c. flour
3 tbsp. butter
Cream butter, add flour and sugar and mix well. Spread this over the peaches and bake 45 minutes in a moderate oven (350 degrees F.). Serve from baking dish.

BAKED PEACHES

Baked peaches are really delicious to serve as a breakfast fruit or for a dessert.

Peel peaches, cut in halves, removing stones. Place in a shallow baking pan. Fill each cavity with

FROZEN PEACH AND ORANGE MOUSSE

Mash fresh peaches to make 1 cupful. Sweeten with $\frac{1}{4}$ c. sugar. Place in refrigerator. Prepare Orange Marshmallow Ice Cream as follows:

1 c. orange pulp
1 tbsp. lemon juice
Grated rind of $\frac{1}{2}$ orange
20 marshmallows, cut
1 c. whipping cream or evaporated milk.

Heat orange pulp, lemon juice and add marshmallows, stirring until dissolved. Cool, then place in freezing tray until firm. Add whipped cream or whipped evaporated milk and pour mixture into two freezing trays. When it begins to become firm, spread one layer with the peaches and cover with the rest of the orange ice cream. Let stand in freezing compartment four hours or until frozen.

PEACH TORTONI

$\frac{1}{2}$ c. mashed peaches
 $\frac{1}{2}$ c. sugar, few drops lemon juice
 $\frac{1}{2}$ c. cream, whipped
One-third c. crumbled macaroons
 $\frac{1}{4}$ tsp. almond extract
Fold peaches which have been mixed with the sugar into the whipped cream. Place in freezing trays. When it begins to freeze add macaroon crumbs and flavoring. Place in individual paper cups (baking cups will serve nicely). Return to refrigerator and freeze until firm.

PEACH MARMALADE

Remove skin and stones from peaches. Weigh fruit and put in preserving kettle. Remove kernel from a few of the peach stones, cook in a little water until soft, cut fine and add to peaches. Heat peaches slowly, then add sugar, allowing $\frac{1}{2}$ lb. sugar to 1 lb. fruit. Cook rapidly for ten minutes stirring constantly, then continue cooking slowly for $\frac{1}{2}$ hour longer, or until thick.

1 tsp. sugar, $\frac{1}{2}$ tsp. butter, few drops of lemon juice and a little nutmeg. Bake 20 minutes in a moderate oven.

RED CROSS HELPS VOLUNTEERS TO KEEP CONTACT WITH HOMES

A system by which Canadian volunteers serving in Europe can keep in touch with their relatives has been put into effect by the Red Cross.

Specially prepared forms have been sent to all branches of the society in B.C. Relatives of men who have gone overseas and of those about to go will be asked to fill in the details. The records will be indexed and filed at headquarters in Vancouver.

As the war progresses it will be possible for the Red Cross, through its branches in Britain, France, Poland and other European countries, to trace the movements of any Canadian who is registered.

Experience in the last war showed that very often the Red Cross was the only agency by which soldiers could get messages out to their families. Often their addresses were military secrets, sometimes they were transferred from one section of the front to another, and frequently, if they were taken prisoner they had no other medium of communication except the neutral Red Cross.

In order to keep the records complete, relatives of enlisted men have been appealed to to turn over information to their local society or to the provincial headquarters in Room 54, 615 West Hastings Street, Vancouver.

FLAGS ON SHIPS

Foreign deepsea ships coming into the Fraser River are taking no chances on not being properly identified on the high seas. They have their national flags painted in huge dimensions on their hulls. Last week a Danish ship was in New Westminster with its name in large letters, as well as its flag on the hull. An American ship had the American flag newly painted on each side amidships.

MATSQUI P.T.A. TO SEND DELEGATES TO VANCOUVER MEETING

The first meeting of the 1939-40 session of the Matsqui P.T.A. was held in the church parlors on Sept. 19, and was marked by a large attendance. The new president, Mrs. A. Gibbard, was in the chair.

Miss E. Cameron gave a thorough explanation of the new report cards. An interesting paper entitled "Accidents on the Playground" was read by Miss Art-culd, the school nurse.

It was decided to send several delegates to attend the mass meeting of P.T.A. representatives to be held in Vancouver on Sept. 20. Tentative plans were made for a whist drive. Refreshments were served by the ladies of the executive who were the hostesses for the afternoon.

Don't worry if your life's a joke, And your rewards are few. Remember that each mighty oak Was once a nut, like you.

Seen from Behind the 8-BALL

by Bill Hambly

We turned to the Art Department, fifth floor, second snore to the right, and asked Clarabelle Bones, our very fine artist, for a conception of the writer of this column doing Pro-Rec turns.

Look what we got! When we shuffled into her room to call her down for the atrocity, she explained the one thin line needed to display our fine physique would not look very wonderful in printers' ink—and less wonderful really doing said Pro-Rec turns. So, we'll stick to supporting Tommy Ruben, Pro-Rec instructor, to get lots of other people worked up to fever pitch to "keep fit". In one of the other 35 columns of this paper it says something about the opening dates of the valley centres. Look them up and turn out; Tommy says "it's fun to be fit". So thinks Clarabelle, too; she's always having fits.

Mrs. Christene Farmer
Funeral services for the late Mrs. Christene Farmer of Stratton, whose death occurred on Saturday, were held Tuesday afternoon from Henderson's Funeral Home. Rev. Angus Cameron officiated and interment was in Musselwhite cemetery. There were many floral tributes. Pallbearers were C. C. Gardner, D. Mathers, T. Mathers, T. B. Stratton, W. Bonar and M. Bergen.

Mrs. Farmer passed away in M. S.A. General Hospital after a lengthy illness. A native of Peru, Illinois, she was 53 years of age and had been a resident of Stratton for 27 years. She is survived by her husband, three daughters, Mrs. Marjorie Crossley of Vancouver, Mrs. Phyllis Haynes of Stratton and Alice Farmer at home, and by three grandchildren. Also surviving are her mother, five brothers, an one sister in the United States.

FORMER RESIDENT VISITS ABBOTSFORD

Mrs. J. Downie, late of London, Eng., and now of Vancouver, spent several days recently the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. Mitchell, and renewed acquaintances in Abbotsford.

It will be recalled that Mr. Downie, a Great War veteran, and blinded, came here with his bride at the close of the war. They made their home here until after Mr. Downie's death in 1926. Later Mrs. Downie, with her two sons, returned to England, where they lived the past ten years, only this summer coming back to Vancouver.

SEVERAL TESTIFY
Other witnesses were James A. Gledhill, brother-in-law of the deceased, who identified the body; Dr. H. E. Cannon, who submitted medical evidence that Carmichael had sustained a broken neck and fractures of the legs; and Mrs. Fred Smith, Gladwin road, who had been walking towards Abbotsford on the sidewalk with her daughter when they heard the crash and tire skid behind them. Mrs. Smith described how Parsons stopped, partly across the road, then turned his car and went back to the scene of the accident. Harry J. Sullivan, K.C., of New Westminster, represented the family of the deceased and J. E. Nicholson of Vancouver was counsel for Parsons. Const. H. Parker of Matsqui conducted the proceedings.

"SOMETHING WRONG"
When instructing the jury before its retirement, Dr. Eacrett observed: "There is something wrong about that sign, (the 20-mile zone warning near the Henderson-Golos property line) It should be farther back." The coroner went on to say that during the recess he had watched the cars on the highway and declared: "Cars are not slowing own, two of five did but the others went through at 50 to 55 miles per hour."

BOTH NEGLIGENCE
The jury returned in about 20 minutes with a verdict that Carmichael met his death by "being struck by a car driven by Frank Parsons due to negligence on the part of both parties." It attached a rider declaring: "We the jury recommend that the speed sign on entering Abbotsford be moved 40 feet west and be equipped with reflector studs." Members of the jury were E. A. Barrett, R. Ralston, L. Merritt, W. Moulden, S. Steel, Wm. Macbeth.
MANSLAUGHTER CHARGE
Mr. Parsons is at liberty on $5000 bail on a charge of manslaughter resulting from the fatality. Preliminary hearing is scheduled to take place at Mt. Lehman at 2 p.m. today, Wednesday, but is likely to be remanded.
